We have prepared this packet specifically for owners/managers of hotels/motels/prepared food establishments to ensure you have the information necessary to help with the success of your business.

Who We Are

The Pine Bluff Advertising and Promotion Commission was established by a vote of the citizens of Pine Bluff. Its mission is to enhance the economy of Pine Bluff by administering the sales tax collected from the sales of prepared food and transient lodging to entice visitors to come to Pine Bluff and spend money in the city.

What We Do

The Pine Bluff Advertising and Promotion Commission is the primary source of operating funds for the Pine Bluff Convention Center. The Commission also provides funding assistance to other attractions in Pine Bluff which draw guests to town including the Arkansas Entertainers Hall of Fame, Arkansas Railroad Museum, Arts & Science for Southeast Arkansas, Pine Bluff/Jefferson County Historical Museum, Hestand Stadium and Taylor Field.

The Commission attracts visitors to Pine Bluff by sponsoring or providing inducements in the form of funding assistance to many of the City's festivals and events, and to dozens of sporting events such as baseball, softball, basketball, fishing and golf tournaments. The Commission partners with the Arkansas Department of Parks and Tourism and with other tourism organizations to combine efforts and dollars in promoting Pine Bluff and Arkansas.

The Commission purchases ads in magazines, newspapers, radio and television inviting people in the state and the region to visit Pine Bluff. Many of these ads are cooperative ventures with the State and with other areas of Arkansas in order to stretch the effectiveness of the advertising dollars. The Commission also publishes numerous brochures and inserts that are distributed around the state and region promoting visitation to Pine Bluff.
